

Groove Armada, What's Your Version? (Reprise)

It seems like the same song,
well it don't shine for everyone.
It seems like that same raindrop never falls on each rooftop.
Seems like the same leaf,
they never fall twice,
never fall from the same tree
Seems like that same old wind
First come cool then warm again

Aaaah aaaah What's your version of things?
Aaaah aaaah What's your version of things?

I've been thinking that everything is different hmhhh it's so nice

Seems like I'm a brand new man,
then when the day began.
Seems like, brand new I'm gonna be,
when the day is threw with me.
I'm changing, changing, changing,
rearranging, and I'm acting strange.
Seems no, no matter what you do.
Life got away, turned around on you.

Aaaahaaaa What's your version of things?
Aaaahaaaa What's your version of things?
Aaaahaaaa Tell me what your version of things is. Aaaahaaaa
Aaaahaaaa What's your version of things?

I've been thinking that everything is different
And it seemed like deja vu, we were just out there.

Aaaah aaaah What's your version of things?
