

Groove Coverage, I Need You

Strophe I:

I know there's somethin' in your eyes,
I know there's somethin' in your smile,
makes me feel like losin' all my thoughts tonight, Baby. Everyday I read between the lines, everynight I'm searching for your signs.
You belong to heaven's gate,
angel of hope...

Strophe II:

So many things I failed to do...
One thousand miles I'd run for you,
you're still the only one I ever need, Baby!
Everyday I read between the lines,
Everynight I'm waiting for your signs.
You belong to heaven's gate,
angel of hope...

Refrain:

I need you, you're always on my mind.
That's all you left behind, my love will last eternally.....

I need you, like no one else before You're all that I adore, my love will last eternally.... I need you.....
