

Groove Coverage, November Night

strophe 1:

nothing left for me to say,
i cant even stop the rain
from falling down into my eyes.
nothing left for you to speak for a moment i am weak
so i cant hold my tears from falling in the night.

bridge:

close your eyes and let me go my way
cause i cant, baby i cant stay

refrain:

let me love you baby hold me tight from days dawning deeper in the night. i wont kiss you when it means goodbye, so leave me dancing in novmber night, leave me dancing

strophe 2:

slowly moments passin by, as i walk away and try to go back and turn the hands of time.
slowly memories hit my mind only part of them rewind.
cant see the reason through this rainy winter night.
