

Groove Theory, 4 Sure (Remix)

(Mekada Davis)
Oh, hmm, oh

You know what you said to me last night
(What did he say?)
It wasn't right
That's why I'm leaving
(You should be leaving)
Talking 'bout how you wish you left me
A long time ago, oh

(Mya)
Well you know it's easy to break a young girl's heart
But now you're getting older
Your heart is getting colder, yeah
And when you talk to him
I know his voice sounded a little sweeter

Cut the bullshit, I can't fall for it no more

(Mekada)
For sure
I was all the woman he needed
In his life
But he fked that up

(Mya)
For sure
You're was all the woman you needed
In his life
But he fked that up

(Mya)(Jagged Edge)
Hello?
(Hey put Mekada on the phone)
Still calling here?
(Yeah I'm calling there, what you doing there?)
She don't wanna talk to you
(What do you mean she don't wanna talk to me?)
(You better put her on the phone)

You know what you said to her last night
Oh you forgot?
It wasn't right
That's why she's leaving
(Why is she leaving)

Yelling out to her you wouldn't be back to (ooh)
To see her no more, ooh

(Jagged Edge)
Tell her I'm sorry
Cause I never meant to go and break her heart
Don't wanna fall apart

(Mekada)
And I've decided I don't want you no more baby

(Mekada)
For sure
I was all the woman he needed
In his life
But he fked that up

(Mya)
For sure
You're was all the woman you needed
In his life
But he fked that up

(Jagged Edge)
You know that
It takes two
You put it all on me but
You was doing your thing too girl
If everything was wrong
Tell me why you stayed with me so long, yeah
To tell the truth
You ain't really all that
Baby here's the door

(Mekada)
For sure
I was all the woman he needed
In his life
But he fked that up

(Mya)
For sure
You're was all the woman you needed
In his life
But he fked that up
