

Groovie Ghoulies, Graveyard Girlfriend

Down in the graveyard on a Saturday night when the chains on the gates are locked up tight.
You're my graveyard girlfriend.
The whole damn world is going to hell, but when I'm with you I could never tell.
You're my graveyard girlfriend.
The dead are all at rest in peace, with just the bare necessities.
You're my graveyard girlfriend.
I don't care what the neighbors say;
I'll be your graveyard boyfriend 'til my dying day.
You're my graveyard girlfriend.
One day I'll lay next to you in a beautiful coffin built for two.
You're my graveyard girlfriend.
