

Groovie Ghoulies, I Ain't Talkin' To You!

You got your opinions
And you got your rights
And you got your mouth wide open
Night after night
And you know you believe it
And you know that it's true
You just forgot one thing -

I AIN'T TALKIN' TO YOU

You think that you're clever
And you think that you're wise
And you think that you're better
Than all of those guys
And you think that it's over
And you think that we're through
You just forgot one thing -
