

Groundation, The Seventh Seal

Oh did ya see dem, chanting for them soul Jah
Some a dem man come, fight a dutty one obeah

They want to control with violency
In them battle for the Seventh Seal
Brimstone and thunder shall surely tell
All of your words of wisdom in your heart them dwell
Wo-wo-wo-wo

Trying to control with violency
Soul to soul dem a oppress we
And it looks to me like dem still don't see
The whole a dem a chanting for stronger military

Oh you must live intelligently
If only for yourself stand on your principality
I just want to reach them all who cannot see
Look they search inna de gutter for food
For dem can't read

They want to control with violency
In them battle for the Seventh Seal
Move the mountain into the sea
They seek to penetrate dem as if them were weak

Who will rescue me?
Jah will always rescue me
Music will always rescue me

Oh you must live intelligently
If only for yourself stand on your principality
I just want to reach them all who cannot see
Look they search inna de gutter for food
For dem can't read

They want to control with violency
Nothing has changed in them stronger beat
Why do they hide those who chant we free?
Why do they hide those who chant we free?

Look how they lean upon dem technology
Asking to trade our hearts for a world of greed

Who will rescue me?
Jah will always rescue me
Music will always rescue me
