

Guadalajara, Short Time Romance

A short-time romance
For a few days planned
Now I just wanna wake up next to you
I've got an undelivered letter about...

A short-time romance
For a few days planned
Now I just wanna wake up next to you
I've got an undelivered letter
That I'll never send
Confessions wrecked by an address unknown

It was me and the boys
We were hanging around
Lying on the beach and listening to the sound of Elvis
We had all greasy hair, looked for summer affairs
For a one week adventure

Then you drove by in a pink Cadillac
It was love at first sight on the second parkdeck
You had this car you had style
A pony-haircut and smiled
When I tried to talk big

A short-time romance
For a few days planned
Now I just wanna wake up next to you
I've got an undelivered letter
That I'll never send
Confessions wrecked by an address unknown

Six days in seventh heaven sticking together
Pinacoladas - just our kisses were better
Now vacation is over, I'm back being sober
And I don't have your number

If you were a student I would carry your books
Wearing a new dress I'd say how great it looks
Selling tickets in a cinema you'd get in for free
If you were my boss, I'd like to be trainee

It's ok, that I'll have to wait a year
So I can kiss you 1,2,3,4 times
Memories are my new found glory until then