

Guano Apes, Scapegoat

I will pray to lord
I run too far away from home

But I, when I will cross the sea alone cos' I can feel the energy when the lord's been crying too many years

I will walk away for them
I see their thoughts in me again

But I, when I will dream this dream again cos' I can take this blame on me now when the lord has been crying for me is my lord really crying this long time for me?

for me again

But I, when I will dream this dream again
cos' I can take this blame on me now
