

Guardian, Curiosity Killed The Cat

In younger days it seemed to me growin' old could never be all the crazy games we used to play Levitating something more sliding on the devil bored candles burning all the mystery Mirror Mirror
on the wall who's gonna catch me when I fall Don't you know that it's more than it seems You say it's only curiosity

Ally Ally Oxen Free never meant a lot to me Can't hide nothing at all Play with fire you'll get burned Seems some people never learn curiosity killed the cat

Superstitions fill your mind don't know where to draw the line a religion of a different kind Tellin' futures with a card
Make a wish upon a star Lady Luck is just a thin disguise

Well it was not last night but the night before twenty four robbers knockin' on my door Step on a crack break your mamas back Catch a tiger by the toe I'm never goin' back
