

Guerilla Rodeo, Stuntman

Here's is the part where i almost died they edit that out of course another non-stop action packed thrill ride

You think that i'm valiant that i escaped impending doom it was really the stuntman i was asleep in my hotel room

He'll take the fall
the stuntman
He'll give it all

and during the part where i barely dodged the flames yes it was he who burned as i talked to my friends outside of the frame i sit in my chair and sip tea he's breaking his neck and not me he's halfway consumed by the dark sometimes when they shoot through the sparks and i've got a hunch he's taking the punch when my face is all that you see

He'll take the fall
the stuntman
He'll give it all

later on in the credits before the best boy but after the cast like some ghost between edits he quietly suffers the sins of my past i could have died but he saved me all that i am he has made me

He'll take the fall
the stuntman
He'll give it all
the stuntman

He's taking the fall he's giving it all
the stuntman
