Guided By Voices, Big Boring Wedding

I have entered a shiny new realm A very different and very spoiled world Its with great pleasure I introduce myself To call and thank you for such delicious pie

The irony is sweet, the bird is paralyzed With one good finger you try me on for size Its hard to imagine that you just want to leave With yellow photos, pocket sized

Revealing mobility, your psychedelic eye Spontaneous and violent but private to the mind With nowhere left to go

Pass the word, the chicks are back The chicks are back, yeah The chicks are back

Pass the word, the chicks are back The chicks are back, yeah The chicks are back

The chandelier is spinning and shaking The fireball is already waking

Revealing mobility, your psychedelic eye Spontaneous and violent but private to the mind With nowhere left to go

Pass the word, the chicks are back The chicks are back, yeah The chicks are back

Pass the word, the chicks are back The chicks are back, yeah The chicks are back

Pass the word, the chicks are back The chicks are back, yeah The chicks are back
