

Guided By Voices, Crutch Came Slinking

Crutch came slinking 'round my house last night told me to get up and ready to fight little did he know I was happy with you little did he show now I'm going all the way hey hey

now I'm thinking maybe i should leave crawling backwards into to my coat sleeve little did we say but I would pack you up and leave little did we know the woes but it's ok and and it's all wrong and so I stay and now I know ? your not leaving to soon Grab you you dreams and caste your cash away bring you hopes, heres hoping you will stay I'm not angry now 'cause I'm not worried
