

Guided By Voices, Curse Of The Black Ass Buffa

excess talkers told stories a "Pioneer Chambers" release official transcript pony expressed for the gasoline drinkers recieved and i failed to mention that even we could smell a rat woould rather throw parties than stones would rather break virgins than bones now this is just a theory but i sincerely believe that if you're into rock and roll you've got to sell your soul and now i've got a hunch they've got something up their sleeves and think that "Pioneer Chambers" doesn't wish us to leave
