

Guided By Voices, Quality Of Armor

Oh yeah, I'm going to drive my car
Oh yeah, I'm going to go real far

As we were sitting here in the final stages
Staring at the screen as the battle rages
You were finding God in the dictionary
Taking photographs in the cemetery

Oh yeah, I'm going to drive my car
Oh yeah, I'm going to go real far
Beyond the shadow of a doubt
Beyond the power of your clout

The worst offense is intelligence
The best defense is belligerence
How we stalemate our predicament
Governed by tissue and filament

Oh yeah, I'm going to drive my car
Oh yeah, I'm going to go real far
Beyond the shadow of a doubt
Beyond the power of your clout
Beyond the secret bogus world
Beyond the Montezuma Halls

Beyond the shadow of a doubt□□
Beyond the power of your clout
Beyond the secret bogus world□□
Beyond the Montezuma Halls
