

Guided By Voices, Sad If I Lost It

Catch me as an animal
And now gone kissing
But soon be missing home
And waving at waterfalls
Too strong not to mention
With tempting extentions unknown

Oh, this time I really mean that
A cracking coat where I dig that
Oh, this time I want to keep it alone
Oh, this time I really trust you
But it can't belong to anyone
And I'd be so sad if I lost it

And the courage seekers
Of the aborted logo
Of declaration no go are gone
But I'll keep a light for em
Hold down the fort for em
And wear my maroon blazer all the time

Oh, this time I really mean that
A cracking coat where I dig that
Oh, this time I want to keep it alone
Oh, this time I really trust you
But it can't belong to anyone
And I'd be so sad if I lost it

Oh, this time I really mean that
A cracking coat where I dig that
Oh, this time I want to keep it alone
Oh, this time I really trust you
But it can't belong to anyone
And I'd be so sad if I lost it

Oh, this time I really mean that
A cracking coat where I dig that
Oh, this time I want to leave it alone
Oh, this time I really trust you
But it can't belong to anyone
And I'd be so sad if I lost it
