

Gun, Can

Life I don't see the meaning now
Love I've lost all the feeling for
Time won't wait to work out why
I'm losing this fight in a private war

Empty life is a warning sign
Locked away where the sun don't shine

Can't get any lower
Cos I've been down before
And this time no one told me
I can't get any lower

Emotions weak like my defences
And I'm a broken man who just can't try
Only you can pull me up and be my lifeline
Cos I feel I just wanna lay down and die

Empty life is a warning sign
Locked away where the sun don't shine

Can't get any lower
Cos I've been down before
And this time no one told me
I can't get any lower

Can't take any more
What you gonna do? What you gonna say?
Where you gonna turn, when the truth comes your way?

Can't get any lower
Cos I've been down before
And this time no one told me
I can't get any lower
Can't get any lower
Cos I've been down before (so little time)
And this time no one told me (nobody told me)
I can't get any lower

Get ready
Get ready
Can't take any more
Get ready, get ready (get ready for the heartbreak)
Get ready, get ready (gonna pick my pride up off the floor)
Get ready, get ready (there's only one way to go)
Get ready, get ready (can't get any lower, can't get any lower)
