

Gunna, Spending Addiction

Ride de Ville or the Maybach, depend on my mood
More bookings and payments that shit done got huge
Hop in the spaceship, take it to the moon
Chrome Hearts on my face just to help me look cool
Her pussy stay wet, we don't gotta use lube
Good head on her shoulders like she still in school
Pour fours in my soda, I won't catch a flu
Loyalty mandatory, you part of this crew
Spending addiction, ten thousand on shoes
Spend with no limit, a hundred on jewels
Too many bitches, they coming in twos
I took a perc, I been itching since noon
Why the brokest the loudest in the room
Why all the sudden niggas want to be cool
Ain't giving second chances, I'm no fool
I'm out my depression, life been going smooth

Bonds in my session, backend through the roof
You gon' make some money, book me for a show
Most of my classmates thought I was a joke
Now look at their faces, I done gave 'em hope
Blue Phantom, I'm like I need me one of those
I built my name up to help the business grow
She freaky, pulled up with out no pantyhose
I'm stacking these benjamins, try not to boast
Bought some exclusive drip on Melrose
Fuck the judge, gave my cousin elbow
Locked him up, put him in a hellhole
They hope that he rotting out in mildew
Ain't seen him since my first year of high school
I'ma pay his way out for 'bout a mil or two
Ten years been riding, I made sure he had some food
I held that shit down, now look what we can do

Ride de Ville or the Maybach, depend on my mood
More bookings and payments that shit done got huge
Hop in the spaceship, take it to the moon
Chrome Hearts on my face just to help me look cool
Her pussy stay wet, we don't gotta use lube
Good head on her shoulders like she still in school

Why the brokest the loudest in the room
Why all the sudden niggas want to be cool
Ain't giving second chances, I'm no fool
I'm out my depression, life been going smooth

Crew full of winners, no way we can lose
I learned from mistakes, won't take another loss
Vibes in the Sprinter, headed to the mall
I rock flawless diamonds, please accept my flaws
I'm getting that money, money over all
If broke is your problem cash is gonna solve it
If she sell pussy better have some bond nigga
Hit you up high, you leaping like a frog
Making these hits, I'm feeling like a batter
Bought myself a ladder, I'ma stake it tall
Gunna don't pay attention to these blogs
They saying shit, I let this money talk
Diamonds on me look like some glass shattered

My bitch's ass fatter, keep a nigga hard
Cars got some custom seats, they can massage
Convertible coming at the end of March

Ride de Ville or the Maybach, depend on my mood
More bookings and payments that shit done got huge
Hop in the spaceship, take it to the moon
Chrome Hearts on my face just to help me look cool
