

Gus Gus (GusGus), Dominique

I am wired.
I am tired
of being someone that I am not.
Tired of showing.
Tired of going along with all my lies.
I wish that I was so strong and I could tell you That all this time I've been wrong
been the wrongest girl in the world.
Been the wrongest girl in the world.
I have kept my face straight and now it's too late for bursting out into a song.
I have been distant. Why would you listen to someone who has been so far for so long?
I wish I dared to touch your face and tell you what is behind my smile.
I have been wrong
been the wrongest girl in the world.
Been the wrongest girl in the world.
