Gus Gus (GusGus), Dominique

I am wired. I am tired of being someone that I am not. Tired of showing. Tired of going along with all my lies. I wish that I was so strong and I could tell you That all this time I've been wrong been the wrongest girl in the world. Been the wrongest girl in the world. I have kept my face straight and now it's too late for bursting out into a song. I have been distant. Why would you listen to someone who has been so far for so long? I wish I dared to touch your face and tell you what is behind my smile. I have been wrong been the wrongest girl in the world. Been the wrongest girl in the world.
