

Gustavo Cerati, Lago En El Cielo

Un lago en el cielo
quiero ser suave
para evitar tu dureza
apago tu fuego enciende mi agua puede que no haya certezas

Vamos despacio
para encontrarnos
el tiempo es arena en mis manos
s por tus marcas
cuanto has amado
ms de lo que prometiste

Hoy te apur (estaba tan sensible)
son espejismos que aumentan la sed si adelant no me hagas caso a veces no puedo con la soledad

para encontrarnos
el tiempo es arena en mis manos.
s por tus marcas
cuanto has dejado
para olvidar lo que hiciste sentir algo que nunca sentiste

Sos el paisaje ms soado y sacudiste las ms sólidas tristezas y respondiste cada vez que te he llamado

Vamos despacio
el tiempo es arena en mis manos
un lago en el cielo
es mi regalo
y sentir algo que nunca sentiste hacerte sentir
algo que nunca sentiste

A lake in the sky
I want to be soft
to avoid your hardness
I put out your fire
You light my water
It may be that nothing is certain

Let's go slowly
to find each other
time is like sand in my hands
I can tell by your markings how much you have loved more than you promised

Today I rushed you
(I was so sensitive)
they're mirages that augment my thirst If I went forward pay no attention

Sometimes I can't (deal) with loneliness

to forget what you did
To feel something you've never felt

You are the most dreamed landscape and you shook the most solid sadness and you answered every time I called

is my gift
and feel something you've never felt to make you feel something you've never felt.
