

Gutter Demons, Out Of Sight

We're getting closer, I still can feel your touch
In the ashes of my memory
A cold silence (yeah) too early to tell
But I have lost already.
In the middle of the room, I'm waiting, standing still There's sparks of lights into your eyes
Blinded by the warm kiss of death, why am I feeling hypnotized?
What I need is one more chance
You pull the strings, I'm rolling the dice
Your pain and tears will bring me back to life
Down in Hell and Out of sight
Black, I can see through the dark
Most of the shadows have disappear
You're moving slow (yeah) I'm hiding in vain
I'm crawling under the ground
Lost I am, Trapped in your arms
You stabbed me, leaving me insane
My mind is stuck in a daze
Dying in the oblivion of your charms
Lost I'm leaving an empty space
You're standing near in Grace
Your bloody red lips (yeah) touching my skin
In the flames I see your face
Your look like a Child under your spider disguise
Even the ray of light can't go through you web
My mind is stuck in a daze, thirsty I'm begging for more
