

Guttermouth, No More

i'm crazy i'm out of my mind i said i'm crazy and you're out of time oh yes, so crazy, so sick of your kind i said i'm crazy baby, and you're out of line every time you look at me i realize what you can't see then i know i was right all the time up and down, side to side i racked my brain, lost my stride always said i'd crack down the line so just leave me, leave me alone my head is finally straight, so i can see where i'm going take your silly problems back to someone new it's plain as night and day i'm not the one for you.
