

Guttermouth, Sucking Dick For Beer

She's a little angel only 17
she don't need no money she just winks her eye she wont give you any but if your in a band then she'll call you daddy I think you understand Mommy's little princess if they could se her now their precious little girl you know she's going down she thinks she's got them fooled but everybody sees that she ain't no angel but hell she aims to please she'll make you think that your the one loves you for an hour than she's gone every weekend its another band

she's seen everybody's tour van stay away from me, stay away from me you fked all the punk bands it don't make you cool you have become a joke its time to be yorself its time to stop the act I might like you better so just get of your back
