

Guy Sebastian, Just As I Am (Cd Version)

i could be a mystery cover up my heart never show my emotions always keep you in the dark i could fire a funny line impress you for a while hide the way that im feeling behind my smile but i dont wanna lie be something that im not cant promise you the moon and stars but i swear to you my love

just as i am
i give myself to you
ill never make it through coz you are the love i need
the life inside of me
so here i stand

i can try playin shy or charm you with my words let you see through the sweet heart which is only there but never works i could end not pretend and tell you how i feel coz its a chance we're takin with our love so real now i dont wanna lie be sumthin that im not

and we'll be together for always coz true colors never lie your my everything
my life is in your hands
so take me

just as i am
just as i am
