

Gym Class Heroes, Live Forever (Fly With Me)

(Daryl Hall:)

I see a window and all I can think about is
Do you wanna fly with me?
Do you wanna fly with me?
I know it sounds crazy but I can't find solid ground so
So do you wanna fly with me?
So do you wanna fly with me?

(Gym Class Heroes:)

And I been starin' at this window for the past 11 hours
Thinkin about all the opportunities this window has to offer
From the 23rd floor to the filing cabinet east manhattan to
FDR is beautiful as I'm watchin' all the cars passin
An a couple stars twinkle so I started laughin'
And a couple walked by an they looked so happy
I booked this room at this place called the last resort
All my bags are packed I got my jacket an my passport
A first class ticket to the after life you dig me
Now is you is or is you ain't with me
And I fully understand if you got other plans
But I can't see you hand in hand with another man
I been on autopilot since we last spoke
And I don't want to board this flight on a bad note
I want you think about it but either way I'm goin
An if you really love me then heres the chance to show it.

Do you wanna fly with me?
Do you wanna fly with me?
I know it sounds crazy but I can't find solid ground.
So do you wanna fly with me?
So do you wanna fly with me?
We'll live forever, maybe we'll write a novel about our love. (x2)

(Gym Class Heroes:)

She looked me dead in the eyes
And took me by the hand
Kissed me on the cheek an said "baby listen I understand
You don't have to leave plus I'm scared of heights
So just put down your luggage forget about this flight
You and I, you know we been through a lot of things
But it's no reason to start trippin' an arguing"
She said "you are my king I place no one above you
And I don't have to board a plane for me to show I love you
And all this talk about the after life is kinda creepy
So let's just go lay down and talk I'm gettin' kinda sleepy"
I kinda smiled and we both walked to the window I pulled it shut
And started staring at the sky I wiped a couple tears away
An then we looked at each other an
I could see the stars twinkle in her eyes
I told her about the couple I saw earlier
She said "I'm sure they're cute but they're not you and I"
