Gym Class Heroes, New Friend Request

I remember when I first laid eyes on you

My man Tom introduced us but I was too shy to say hi

When I finally built up enough nerve to drop a line

You made it clear you wasn't just another myspace mistress

And I didn't take it personal

When you ignored my request to be your friend I spilled my guts and hit send

Waited 2 weeks for a response and got nothing

Honestly it only made me want you more

Week 4 rolled around and I was this close to letting go

But something wouldn't let me even though I hardly knew you

It was plain to see we were meant to lock lips

You knock me out with the brass knuckle tats on your hips

I was on this website late night lurking

When I got a message from you that was labeled urgent

You said you weren't impressed by lame dudes with no game

They're all the same tryin' to get your instant messenger name

But the fact that you're hittin' me back made me smile

You must've saw somethin you liked when you was skimming through my profile

You caught me at the most pivotal moments

And now I'm emailing my love with a dozen digital roses

So click approve, so simple

Show me some kind of sign and let me know it's time to make my move

Just click approve, come on girl

Baby I'm one of a kind and I ain't got time to lose

Just click approve, you're killin' me here

Show me some kind of sign and let me know it's time to make my move

Just click approve, come on girl

Baby I'm one of a kind and I ain't got time to lose

Let's face it, it's a sad situation when we have to resort to keyboards as a means of making relation

But I don't have the patience, I get straight to the point

So this is me at my most honest

No egos, no Gym Class status, just Travis

Love you to leave it, but you gotta admit

On a scale of 1 to awesome I'm the shit

Just get over it, it happened god damn it, I'd been waitin too long

I even wrote a song about, like to hear it, here it go

If I'm being too annoying, let me know just let me know

But it's hard for me to not hate

When I'm on myspace I never see my face in your Top 8

Approaching 6 weeks now, it's kinda obvious that you're either occupied or playing a game

All my money's on the latter, this is not a L O L matter

Why would you pass up a chance this great?

If there were 2 forces and I split them down the middle, I could swing back and forth for 3 days

If I had 2 horses, and I beat them with authority, I'd gallop all the way to Canada to see your face

But all I got is this Powerbook and iChat

Besides I hit you all the time and you never write back

I stay on my feet

Shit

And be persistent 'til my name is under who you would like to meet

So click approve, so simple

Show me some kind of sign and let me know it's time to make my move

Show me some kind of sign and let me know it's time to make my move

Just click approve, come on girl

Baby I'm one of a kind and I ain't got time to lose

Who cares if we don't know each other's last name

All I know is that I'm smitten with your pictures wishin' you would feel the same

I'll admit I get a little jealous when other dudes leave you comments

Don't let it gas you up, it's all nonsense

Make me out, romancing the thought of me and you speaking in tongues in this mansion I bought But it's all wishful thinking

Just give me some kind of sign to let me know I'm not freakin' you out

And if you lovin' what I'm speaking about, then say something

I check my inbox 10 times and there ain't nothing

You probably busy doing something sexy

I just hope I'm in your thoughts next time you log in

And if not, ain't no love lost between you and me

I'll be here when your man ain't fully down as he used to be

So yeah it's time to sign out, my vision's getting blurry

This is madness, xoxo dash Travis
