

H-Blockx, Can't Break My Fear get out of me wanting to be stronger than me you are not me cause I feel and I fear whatever it is it can't be what's me drills out a hole inside my soul fills out the hole I want you to go I hear you, I fear you, you're in me caught in myself like nothing else deep in my cells you ring the bells what I feel's as cold as steel whatever it is it's my achilles heel

can't break my fear

I go out to drink don't have to think can't find a link, feel like a sink just to feel none is real whatever helps to wash the pain away starting to doubt what I'm about inside a cloud can't bleed you out I see you, I fear you, you're not me hang on so long, until you're gone I know you're strong and that you're wrong but I feel and I fear whoever you are you cut the deepest scar

cause I am scared! I am scared! I am scared!
I am, I am, I am, I am, I am... scared!!!
