H-Blockx, Take Me Home

looking for them streetcaf looking for that face, a night after a day a day I made love to empty dreams and nothing's like what it seems nothing's like what it seems to be nomore freedom's kissed by loneliness somebody take away that emptiness I layed on myself and...

chorus:

take me home tonight take me on my own take me all alone just come and take me home take me home take me on my own take me all alone just come and take me... home

I've seen so many faces I I've seen so many nights nights without a trace so I'm sitting in that streetcaf? haven't found that face the face that makes me say freedom's kissed by sweet caress nobody took away that emptiness that I layed on myself so...

there's so much I felt but I can't explain the urge of love remains, but all these easy faces change still so much I feel but still I can't explain am I the one to blame I can't hold a face without a name nomore it's up to me to... take me home tonight take me home tonight take me on my own take me all alone just come and take me home just come and take me home just come and take me home take me all alone just come and take me home just come and take me home
