

H.I.M., Dark Light

Shivers run through the spine
Of hope as she cries
The poisoned tears of a life denied
In the raven-black night
Holding hands with...

Dark light
Come shine in her lost heart tonight
And blind
All fears that haunt her with your smile
Dark light

In oblivion's garden
Her body's on fire
Writhing towards the angel defiled
To learn how to die
In peace with her God

Dark light
Come shine in her lost heart tonight
And blind
All fears that haunt her with your smile
Dark light

Dark light
Come shine in her lost heart tonight
And blind
All fears that haunt her with your smile

Dark light
Come shine in her lost heart tonight
And blind
All fears that haunt her with your smile
Dark light
