

H.I.M., You Are The One

No, I won't surrender at any cost.
You're something so sweet and tender from my heart.
Yes, I have done my evil,
I've done my good.
Just believe me honey, I won't let go of you.

You are the one
And there is no regret at all.
You are the one
And there is no regret at all.

We had our share of misfortune,
We've had our blues
And god is not on our side; yes, it's true.
You keep forgetting baby, the beauty of us too.
There is no one who can take that away from me and you.

You are the one
And there is no regret at all
You are the one
And there is no regret at all

You are the one
And there is no regret at all
You are the one
And there is no regret at all
