

Hailee Steinfeld, Wrong Direction

[Verse 1]

I don't hate you
No, I couldn't if I wanted to
I just hate all the hurt that you put me through
And that I blame myself for letting you
Did you know I already knew?

[Pre-Chorus]

Couldn't even see you through the smoke
Lookin' back I probably should have known
But I just wanted to believe that you were out sleepin' alone

[Chorus]

Hurt me with your worst intentions
Didn't even start to question
Every time you burn me down
Don't know how, for a moment, it felt like heaven
Love me with your worst intentions
Painted us a happy ending
Every time you burn me down
Don't know how, for a moment, it felt like heaven

[Post-Chorus]

And it's so good, mention
Fallin' in the wrong direction

[Verse 2]

On my tip-toes
But I still couldn't reach your ego
Guess I was crazy to give you my body, my mind
Don't know what I was thinkin', too long
Everyone thinks that your somebody else
You even convinced yourself

[Pre-Chorus]

Couldn't even see you through the smoke
Lookin' back I probably should have known
But I just wanted to believe that you were out sleepin' alone

[Chorus]

Hurt me with your worst intentions
Didn't even start to question
Every time you burn me down
Don't know how, for a moment, it felt like heaven
Love me with your worst intentions
Painted us a happy ending
Every time you burn me down
Don't know how, for a moment, it felt like heaven

[Post-Chorus]

And it's so good, mention (Ooh, ooh)
Fallin' in the wrong direction (Ooh, ooh)
How did you sweep me off of my feet, baby, I can't heal
Fallin' in the wrong direction
How did you sweep me off of my feet, right off my feet

[Pre-Chorus]

Couldn't even see you through the smoke
Lookin' back I probably should have known
But I just wanted to believe that you were out sleepin' alone

[Chorus]

Hurt me with your worst intentions
Didn't even start to question (Oh no)

Every time you burn me down
Don't know how, for a moment, it felt like heaven
Love me with your worst intentions
Painted us a happy ending
Every time you burn me down (Me down)
Don't know how, for a moment, it felt like heaven

[Post-Chorus]
And it's so good, mention
Fanllin' in the wrong direction
