

Hale, Life Support

Sarcastic smiles and fake hellos
We try to hide but always
Leave an open door behind
To escape from reality

Why are you crying?
Why are you crying?

It felt so sure but we said no
We're throwing lies at someone
We don't know, we don't know
From this reality

Why cant we risk our lives
For something that we can't deny
We try to run from something
We don't know, we don't know
Is this reality?

Why are you crying?

I feel so sorry
I feel so sorry
For me..
