

Halford Rob, Hearts of darkness

With a friend to share your angry life
Deadly secrets to resolve your strife
Death remaining on each thought you owned Blackened hate in legacies renowned
Love and death
Lure your prey
Thought by thought
From your hate
Recanted murder in a place of peace
Hide the truth from one that is deceased
Did you believe so little in your life
To kill a friend to satisfy your plight
In my crime
I am living
I can die
Unforgiving
Lost in trials
No repentance
Trapped in time
Serve my sentence
No remorse
Youth got old
Wasted life
Blood ran cold
Point the finger at the only thing you truly loved
On your way to ending life - tonight
Took too much
To the end
In denial
Deceived your friend
See myself
Through your eyes
You are all
I despise
As I bleed
What I gave
Put me now
In my grave
