

Hall Kristen, Open Arms

it's breaking my heart the way things are maybe it's you who needs to change maybe it's me who's gone too far late last night, i'm in my bed i'm playing back the words you said take my heart and take my mind but don't you leave a trace behind do what you do best and go too many times i turned away hoping you'd see through all my fear so many things i meant to say if we try, i have no doubt we have the means to work this out courage can erase the pain of all the times we tried in vain it's easier to turn and run easier to turn and run to me when you feel lonely come to where you're safe and warm run to me if you need holding there will be a place in these open arms even when you said we're through deep inside i always knew it's such a waste, it's such a shame and no one but ourselves to blame now i know that all this must be some sick tribute to our trust baby take a chance and...
in these open arms
in these open arms...
