Words: J. Oates

Music: J. Oates, D. Hall

Take your pick of the modulation like a kid in a candy store It's a hand-carry situation made for lying on the beach or dancin in the streets You got your pertinent information or you can tune in to hear the scores There's a power in a million stations you can't ignore
