

Halou, Arrhythmia

Not broken
Not partly infirm
A fragile reminder to live
Not to be scared when my heart skips
Not to be scared, not to be scared

And all I am is part of you
(Perhaps she is overwhelmed)
And I cannot be apart from you
Its too much

Not walled-in
Not hidden by veils
All I am is open for view
What will they say when my time comes?
She had a good heart

Weak, but never broken

And all I am is part of you
(It convinces me Im alive)
And I cannot be apart from you
Its too much
