

Halsey, Killing Boys

[Amanda Seyfried & Meghan Fox:]

You're killing people

No, I'm killing boys

Boys are just placeholders, they come and they go

You're my best friend, and I wanna help you, but I won't let you kill again, that's a lose-lose

[Halsey:]

Told me pick my battles and be picking 'em wise

But I wanna pick 'em all and I don't want to decide

No more, no more, anymore

So we'll sneak in the back

And then we'll kick in the door

Tell me have you ever keyed a Ferrari before?

Oh no, oh I don't anymore

And I'm not breaking, I won't take it

And I won't ever feel this way again

'Cause you don't need me anymore, ooh whoa

And I won't ever try again

And all I want in return is revenge

Cause I don't need you anymore, ooh whoa

So where do you go?

Pull up to the drive and I remember the codes

Yeah, the only fucking numbers you don't hide in your phone

No more, no more, anymore

Climb up to the window and I'm breaking the glass

Then I stop 'cause I don't wanna Uma Thurman your ass

No more, no more, anymore

And I'm not breaking, I won't take it

And I won't ever feel this way again

'Cause you don't need me anymore, ooh whoa

And I won't ever try again

And all I want in return is revenge

'Cause I don't need you anymore, ooh whoa

So where do you go?

When I don't need you anymore

And I don't need you
