Hammerfall, We Won't Back Down

Silence, we have sworn The oath, protect the earth, the sun and moon My precious friends United we stand 'till the end

The vision, future's demand Has been written in the palm of our hands When we charge the storm clouds amass Cuz the ace of swords will lead on this glorious day

Hold your heads high Reach for the sky Never surrender We Won't Back Down The power within Our remedy for sin The true life defenders We Won't Back Down

Battles, we have won We bled, but never once we've fallen down Form dusk 'till dawn Standing with our mighty swords drawn

The future lie straight ahead Our dreams within reach, not mislead We are here, true warriors on the line Forever we'll be the sun in the tarot deck of cards

Hold your heads high Reach for the sky Never surrender We Won't Back Down The power within Our remedy for sin The true life defenders We Won't Back Down

Cuz the ace of swords will lead on this glorious day

Hold your heads high Reach for the sky Never surrender We Won't Back Down The power within Our remedy for sin The true life defenders We Won't Back Down We Won't Back Down We Won't Back Down

We won't back down, we are partners in crime We are true life defenders on earth
