

Hammet Melanie, The Marrow & The Bone

i can feel you silently whisper i can feel your perpetual stare i can feel your heat surrounding me, but when i look you're never there

CHORUS

tell me a riddle, tell me the truth is this the secret of love or the passion of youth? i've got to get you alone between the marrow and the bone every night i lie awake dreaming about the things that lovers can do and i want to have you near, me want to have you here i want to show you what i'm gonna do do you share my secret desire?

do you share the heat of my dreams i won't keep fantasizing things are really what they seem
