

Handshakes And Highfives, Reflections

If I could describe with words
How I truly feel for you
I swear, I swear, I swear
You'd fall in love all over again,
Oh baby we're untouchable
And I'm positive it's all
That we've ever needed to feel,
Trust me baby, this is real
Looking straight into your eyes
I catch reflections of the skies
And in a manner so beautiful
You whisper baby we're untouchable
We're in for it now. Is this what we want?
Is this where it's going?
Tell me come on, oh just go,
I could've been a million more of you
We're untouchable
You can't touch us now
And we're untouchable
You can't touch us now
There's no getting ahead of ourselves anymore
We're not cocky just confident,
We're not cocky just confident
Is this not the best feeling in the world, girl?
Oh baby we're untouchable,
And I'm positive it's all
That we've ever needed to feel
Trust me baby, this is real
Looking straight into your eyes
I catch reflections of the sky
And in a manner so beautiful
You whisper baby we're untouchable
Just let it go, your dead in this,
I won't be quiet, I wish this now,
my love is waiting, change,
you can't die, you can't die now
And we're untouchable
You can't touch us now
And we're untouchable
You can't touch us now
And we're untouchable
You can't touch us now
And we're untouchable
You can't touch us now
