

Hangnail, Commitment Unbreakable

You're still hanging on, and too scared to let it go
No it won't be long, 'til your complications show

(Chorus)

Hoping for, commitment unbreakable
You ignore, the warning signs that you know
Waiting on, a better time, not right now
Wait too long, now you're better on your own
(End Chorus)

You're left missing out, discontentment's held you down
There'll be no regret, once you change your way around

(Repeat Chorus)

(Repeat Chorus)
