

hania rani, Leaving

Are you leaving?
Is there a better place?
I guess
The doors are open, remember to take care

Hold on
I hear the silence in whole this empty space
Like noise
Every whisper and every single breath

Are you leaving?
Is there a better place?
I guess
The doors are open, remember to take care

Hold on
I hear the silence in whole this empty space
Like noise
Every whisper and every single breath

Are you leaving? (Are you leaving?)
Are you leaving there? (Are you leaving there?)
Are you leaving? (Are you leaving?)
Are you leaving there? (Are you leaving there?)

Are you leaving?
Is there a better place?
I guess
The doors are open, remember to take care

Hold on
I hear the silence in whole this empty space
Like noise
Every whisper and every single breath
