

Hank Snow, Gypsy Feet

Gypsy feet will wander Gypsy feet will stray
Neither love nor thunder can ever make them stay
I can't tame a heart so wild like a jungle drum it beats
Were you born a devil child with the restless gypsy feet

Gypsy feet keep dancing to the tune of violin
Just like devil's prancing you dance away your sins
If I could tame your restless heart would make my life complete
But I can't put an anchor on your gypsy feet

[guitar]

My picture's in your locket on that golden chain
Money's in your pocket and you're gone again
Gypsy lips will promise vows that they never keep Hearts like mine are crumbled beneath your gypsy feet
Gypsy feet keep dancing...
