

Hank Snow, So Good To Be Back With You

Always and always I'll love you forever
Oh it's so good to be back with you

The grass looks greener on the other side
I crossed over to the arms of someone new
Searching for something I had all the time
Oh it's so good to be back with you

So good to feel your arms around me again
So good to feel your heart beat with mine
All the bad times are gone I'll be yours from now on Darling fate has been so kind

Nothing else matters we're together at last
And I know that you love me too
Always and always I'll love you forever
Oh it's so good to be back with you
Always and always I'll love you forever
Oh it's so good to be back with you
