

Hank Thompson, Just A Little While

Oh tonight each happy moment that I ever spent with you
Brightens up my mem'ries of the past
Then I remember that dark moment when we said our last goodbye
To a love we knew could never last

Just a little while just a little while
Just a little while ago when love was new
Our romance now has faded but there's nothing I'd have traded
For the precious little while of loving you
[guitar - steel - fiddle]
With your picture here before me I pretend that you're still mine
And I still can hear you say I love you so
And the time that seems just like a million years since I lost you
Was really just a little while ago
Just a little while...
