

Hanover Saints, Make Some Noise

Make some noise with bold declaration
Make some noise with all you have
Make some noise without reservation
Make some noise for the son of man

These walls were made to be broken down
For our spirits to be built up
Waiting for the final days
Where the sword will make precision cuts

Cuz this what I want. yeah
Cuz this what you want yeah
Cuz this what we want yeah
Cuz this I what we got yeah
We got it

Seen a share of enemies succeed
And profit gone to grave
Ie seen revival within my heart
And taken hold of freedom keys
