

Hanson, Sun N Sky

A wishing tree
I ask for you ticking on from midnight
you won't remember but I do

take me home
It's all in me
Trading showers for sunlight
You can't control what you can't see

So Just let go
and now you're mine
we'll make love
And everything
Hold this moment
Take your time

It's just you and me and you Just you and the sun and the sky
It's just you and me and you
Just you and the sun and the sky

Darkness falls Daylight fades
Let's keep this secret moment
Keep on dreaming till morning breaks

So just let go
And now you're mine
And we'll make love
And everything
Hold this moment
Take your time

just you and me and you Just you and the sun and the sky
It's just you and me and you
Just you and the sun and the sky

you know
The roads still lead somewhere

See what's there, yeah

so just let go
and now you're mine
and we'll make love
And everything
Hold this moment
take your time
