

Happy Campers, Romeo And Juliet

Born without a chance in hell condemned from the womb on a one way trip destination: an early tomb two kids from the hood two numbers on a chart she didn't finish high school he didn't even start mommy got herself pregnant to keep him around but daddy left anyway
and she's findin' out what single motherhood is all about the statistics are frightening hte odds are stifling you may not like what you hear offspring's of the have nots and even less a world of anarchy is here and we're told we have nothing to fear (REPEAT)
a few years later mom and son don't have a place to rest thier head while daddy rots in San Quentin with free room and bed mommy O.D.'s in an empty garbage bin and her son's picture's on an empty milk carton while the politicians play with thier million dollar toys we're losing handfuls of little girls and little boys
