

Happy Campers, Scam

Help! there's a girl in my bed thought's are runnin through my head somethin' must be said I think she wants to spend the night I don't mind but her boyfriend might somethin' don't feel right I won't sleep tonight i know cause I have no self control she don't mind
why should i say no how far will we go will we take things slow will she like me tomorrow maybe its all wrong but I'm feelin fine cause i know tonight you'll be mine live for the moment don't think ahead cause all that really matters tonight is lying in my bed Everyone else has gone to sleep I should be countin sheep tryin hard not to make a peep but her skin brushes against mine sends a shiver down my spine call in sick for work tonight find it very hard to sleep probably had to much to drink I hope my breath don't stink our lips begin to touch I want her so much
Yeeaaahhhh
